

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Hon. R. P. HOCKER, is a candidate for the Legislature subject to the action of the Democratic party. Election August 1879.

Democratic State Ticket.

FOR GOVERNOR,
DR. LUKE P. BLACKBURN,
Of Jefferson County.

FOR LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR,
HON. JAS. E. CANTRELL,
Of Scott County.

FOR ATTORNEY GENERAL,
P. W. HARKIN,
Of Mercer County.

FOR JUDGE,
GEN. FAYETTE HEWITT,
Of Harlan County.

FOR TREASURER,
HON. J. W. TATE,
Of Franklin County.

FOR SEPT. PUBLIC INSTRUCTION,
PROF. J. DESHA PICKETT,
Of Fayette County.

FOR REGISTER OF THE LAND OFFICE,
CAPT. RALPH SHELTON,
Of Nelson County.

THANKS TO THE HONORABLE COMMISSIONER of this State, for his last annual report.

SOME farmers in Caldwell county, have already set out their crops of tobacco.

THE Republicans in the First Appellate District, lost their hold in the recent election.

WEDNESDAY to note the revival of the Rockport (Ind.) Gazette. Long may it continue to show its cheerful face.

THE Democratic primaries will be held at each voting place next Saturday evening between 1 and 3 o'clock.

AFTER an all night's session, last Friday night, the house passed the Silver Bill, by a vote of 114 to 97.

THE city of Henderson, Ky., has a bonded debt of half a million dollars, with only two million dollars of taxable property.

A SPECIAL train is sent out from Henderson to the Junction every Tuesday, and will be this run, until further notice.

WE have received from Col. D. Howard Smith, Auditor of the State, his report for the year 1878, for which he has our thanks.

TOM BROWN, the murderer of Judge THOMAS, has applied for, and obtained a change of venue, to Owen county. His trial is fixed for July 8th.

MR. W. T. HARKIN, of Shelby county, has been placed upon the National Greenback State ticket, as their candidate for Treasurer. Their ticket is now complete.

WM. LOVELL GARRISON, the noted Abolitionist, died in New York last Saturday evening, of bright's disease. His remains will be interred in Boston, some time during the week.

THE measles are prevailing.—Princeton Banner.
Capt. Allen is a candidate for the Legislature.

ROBERT J. ANTON, a former citizen of this county, but now a resident of Spencer county, Ind., was robbed recently of $200. Emory and Wm. Davis, of Richmond City, have been arrested and placed under bond to answer.

DEMOCRATS, do not neglect to go to your precinct meetings next Saturday, and then afterwards grumble and moan about because your choice was not nominated.

THE Democrat that has the success of his party at heart, will attend the primary convention next Saturday and cast his vote for that candidate he thinks best qualified to represent the interests of the people of the county.

THE National Greenback Executive Committee of this State, have recently nominated R. C. Melketh, of Hart county, for Superintendent of Public Instruction, and Gano Henry, of Jefferson, for Register of Land Office.

HOCKER ran him off in 17 minutes and didn't get off before he got on. When a man turns Democrat he is invincible.—News.

How is it neighbor, when he turns Republican?

THE Good Templars of Western Kentucky located west of the St. L. & E. R. R., including the counties through which said road passes, will meet in Princeton, June 20th and 21st, to organize a permanent Good Templars' Convention for that end of the State.

WE suppose the News is ashamed of the nominee of the Republican Convention, Dr. J. W. Mendor. It has been issued twice since his nomination, and the Doctor's name is not in the column of Republican candidates. What is the matter?

THE Democrat says that the wool of Clark County this season, will bring $20.00, and the hams will bring $130.00. The Coward in the breed Clark county farmers believe in. These figures ought to induce Ohio county farmers to pay more attention to the raising of good sheep.

BECAUSE Hon. T. A. Hendricks has a mind of his own, and thinks for himself, he has been denounced by the Courier-Journal as a fool and a conspirator. In patriotism, statesmanship and true manhood, he is the peer of any man ever connected with the Courier-Journal, or who ever read it, and such an effort to read him out of the party, will fail of its mission. Hendricks can stand the stab made at him, if those making it can afford it.

EMMETT LOGAN having declined to deliver the annual address at the next Press Convention, President J. Stoddard Johnson has appointed Mr. Gus C. Matthews, of the Courier-Journal staff, and Mr. Matthews has accepted. He has the reputation of being a very graceful, eloquent speaker, and we may expect a rare treat.

PRESIDENT Hayes has vetoed the second bill on the prohibition of the use of the United States' troops at the election polls. The President intends holding the army to enforce the despotic dictates of his party. Sherman has $450,000,000 locked up in the Treasury, with which he intends to pay the army and back up the President in his policy, whether Congress gives the authority or not. The bondholders own both Hayes and Sherman, so the nation is in the hands of the thieving bondholders.—Legal-Tender.

PROF. W. B. HAYWARD has been solicited by quite a number of personal and political friends to allow the use of his name as a candidate for the Democratic nomination next Monday. His card in response thereto, is published in this issue, in which he consents to accept the nomination, if the Democrats think proper and best to nominate him. His card has the truest about it. He is a man of fine ability, a good speaker, a fine debater, and would make the campaign lively for his opponent. If elected, he would be heard from in the House of Representatives next winter.

WE want to say now, for once and all, when we want any essays, speeches, poems or other matter from school books, literary works, magazines, &c., we will select them ourselves and give credit. We are tired of being bored by persons copying selections of different kinds and sending to us for publication as original matter. Do you think we never read any? or do you think the readers of the HERALD are such ignoramuses, as not to be able to detect the fraud. We have our waste basket full of such stuff, and hereafter, any one attempting this to impose upon us and our readers, will be shown up to the public as a literary pirate.

The News man says his paper has the largest circulation in Ohio county of any other paper. Now we'll leave it to the sworn statement of the Postmasters, and if the Herald has not a larger circulation in Ohio county than the News we will "set 'em up" for the whole crowd at our own expense.

The News is mistaken as it nearly always is, when it said the court decided that the Hartford Rail Road company was never properly organized and the bonds are invalid. Better read the judgment.

Our Power Press.

THE circulation of the HERALD has increased so rapidly that it was impossible to run the issue off on a hand press. We have purchased a new Campbell Power Press 32 by 48 inches in bed, with capacity to print 800 to 1,000 papers an hour. We are thus enabled to give our readers later news and can always be on time with our issue.

A Call on Prof. W. B. Hayward.

FOURSVILLE, KY., May 25.
We, the undersigned citizens of Foursville, Ky., respectfully solicit Prof. W. B. Hayward to become a candidate before the County Convention, June 2nd, 1879, for Legislative honors. We hereby pledge him our hearty support:

J. T. Lightfoot, Thos. W. Brown,
Isaac Sanders, Reuben Wright,
P. H. Hatly, John H. Magin.

Owensboro & Nashville Railroad.

The Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis Railroad Co. have bought a controlling interest in this road, and will complete it to Nashville. Another road is in prospect from Owensboro to Vincennes, Ind. It also is talked of extending the road to Evansville, Ind. This would make a line from Nashville to St. Louis, ten miles shorter than the St. Louis & South Eastern, and also open a direct line via Vincennes direct to Chicago. We have no doubt but all these connections will be made in the near future.

Democrats, Rally!

Next Saturday is the day set apart by the Democratic Executive Committee of Ohio county, to hold meetings at each voting place in the county, to select delegates to attend the county convention in Hartford next Monday, to nominate a candidate for the Legislature. Democrats, it is your duty to turn out en masse to these primary meetings and take a lively interest in selecting your thickest, staunchest men, as delegates. Ohio county is a Democratic county, but has been represented by Republicans as often as Democrats, the past few years. Apathy, indifference, want of harmony might produce such a result again. If you wish your representative to reflect properly, the views of a majority of the voters of the county, turn out next Saturday for your primary meeting and cast your votes for the candidate best qualified to represent your interests. Select your best men as delegates, and take such other steps as will secure the success of the candidate nominated.

Republican County Convention.

Last Saturday week, pursuant to a call of the Republican County Executive Committee, a few of the faithful met in mass meeting at the court-house, to nominate a candidate for Representative in the next Kentucky Legislature. After the usual motions, counter motions and specifying, nominations were declared in order, whereupon, T. C. Welding, Esq., with much fulsome praise and meaningless flattery, placed in nomination the name of Dr. J. W. Mendor, who distanced all competitors in the first heat; receiving 13 votes to Esquire Melvin Taylor's 10 votes, Esquire W. P. Rinders 7, D. L. Smith's 3, and 6 for L. T. Cox, and was declared the unanimous choice of the convention and great enthusiasm. Thereupon, E. C. Hubbard being loudly called for, regaled the crowd with a blood and thunder speech, denouncing "Southern Brigadiers," and arraigning the Democratic party of Kentucky for nominating Southern soldiers for office. A. P. Hudson also waved aloft the ensanguined garment with a fury worthy of a P. S. Store-keeper's zeal, making decidedly the best speech of the occasion. Col. Shanks looked grim, but for a wonder maintained his silence. The three or four colored delegates or members also maintained a solemn silence.

Mr. Fitzhugh Declines Prof. Hayward Recommended.

To the Democracy of Ohio County:

I beg leave to return my heart-felt thanks to those personal friends and sterling Democrats who have solicited me to become a candidate for the Legislature. The circumstances by which I am at present surrounded, render it a matter of impossibility for me to make such a canvass as would be necessary and proper to secure an election, were I to be selected as the nominee of the party at the approaching convention. Therefore I most respectfully decline any candidacy. The highest compliment that my friends can pay me, is to cast their vote in convention, for my friend and neighbor, Prof. W. B. Hayward, who, I believe possesses superior qualifications for the office of Representative. To those who are acquainted with Prof. Hayward, any eulogium from me is wholly unnecessary. To those who have not the pleasure of his acquaintance, I will state that should he be selected as the next Representative of Ohio county, it will be known that he is a member of the General Assembly.

The canvass promises to be an unusually spirited one, and will require a man of vigor, energy, indefatigable will and thorough acquaintance with the issues of the day. Such a man, in my humble opinion, is Prof. Hayward, and though he has made no canvass to secure the nomination, I believe he will accept it if voluntarily tendered, and will appreciate it as highly as any other man.

A Card From Prof. W. B. Hayward.

SHELTON SPRINGS, KY., May 28.

To the Democrats of Ohio County:

On the 12th inst., in a public speech in Hartford, I said I was neither an aspirant nor a candidate for any office in the gift of the people of Ohio county. Since that time, tried, and influential Democrats from different parts of the county have urgently solicited my consent to the presentation of my name before the Democratic Convention to meet next Monday to nominate a candidate to represent this county in the House of Representatives of the next Legislature of Kentucky.

It is true, I do not want the office for any personal aggrandizement it might confer, but only as a testimonial of the confidence and good-will of my fellow-citizens, and in order that I may have an opportunity to advance, as best my humble ability may permit, those great and patriotic principles which Democrats hold most dear. In this sense and for this purpose, I would accept a nomination, and be more profoundly thankful for it than though I had sought it by months of canvassing.

I have no claims to present for I do not think that fealty to principle by which my own interests have been subserved and my own conscience satisfied deserves any reward from others.

It will doubtless be insisted that this announcement is too late to entitle it to consideration, being but three days before the time appointed to select delegates to the convention. It may also be urged against me that I have made no canvass to secure delegates pledged to support me. In reply, I have only this to say, that my action is in deference to public opinion as it has come to me and which I do not feel inclined to ignore, for I frankly admit that I prize these manifestations of regard more highly than I would a seat in the Legislature.

In a Republic, the will of the people fairly expressed is and must be supreme, and no man and no party can by artifice or unconstitutional means antagonize it and politically live.

Let it be distinctly understood, that if the presentation of my name either at the precinct meetings or convention shall produce dissent or create schism it cannot be used by my consent.

To the public that I most respectfully and humbly bow.

W. B. HAYWARD.

FOUR NEWS, May 26.

Farmers are done planting corn, except those who had to sow out and plant over again, on account of not having good seed corn. Corn that stood out last winter and took that cold weather, wet and snow, was injured so that it will not come up. Wheat looks well and bids fair for a large yield. Oats are badly injured by the dry weather. Farmers in this neck are making preparations for a good crop of tobacco this year, some have their ground ready for setting out.

Potato tops look well, no bugs to kill, as some one said in last week's Transcript.

Misses Gregory & Son have been selling their bee-hives around here. Mr. W. H. Newcomb got one, and now he says as his bees have a nice house to work in, they must roll out some honey. Eljah Woodward, near Belmont, is quite sick with pneumonia.

Mrs. Paul, of Woodville, has arrived, and is visiting relatives in the neighborhood. She is in excellent health and is cordially greeted by her old friends here.

Mrs. Cain, who was thrown from her horse and badly crippled some time since, is getting well. She can walk about the house by the aid of a crutch.

This community sadly mourns the loss of Luther Stevens. He was a good boy beloved by all who knew him.

We hope you will not mind the News, but give the HERALD a whirl and send it to

Our sunset was honored last Saturday by a call from Mrs. Paul, of Woodville, McCracken county, accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Lucy Woodward, of Boda, who is visiting.
Mrs. Paul formerly lived at Boda.

George Chinn was arrested at Vine grove, Hardin county, on Monday, charged with being one of the burglars that robbed Ferguson's store last Friday. Poor fellow, he has not been out of the penitentiary more than a month.
He is a native of this county.

Messrs. James A. Thomas and F.
E. Kinley, under the firm name of Thomas & Kinley, are opening a drug store in the house between Rosenberg & Bro's and Foster & Hill's. They will be ready for business soon.

We called on Chris. Schupman, boot and shoe maker, yesterday, for an advertisement, but he was busy at work for his customers and had so much work to do to fill orders, that he had no time to advertise. He does good work at fair rates and hence, is always busy.

J. L. Maunz, of Allensville, Logan county, has been engaged to cover the Hartford Water Mills with tin roofing.
He has also some other work engaged,
and while here will do any work in that line entrusted to him, in the best style, at reasonable prices.

and excellent work.

Lincoln McHenry, of color, was tried before his honor, Judge Cummins, last Saturday for disturbing religious worship and fined $20. He failed to pay or replevy, consequently marshal Hardwick marched him over to Castle Soldier yesterday morning where he will beard until he pays the debt at hard labor.

The St. Nicholas Restaurant in Hartford, is one of the best places in the Green River country, to get a good meal. We are not guessing at it, but speak by the card, for we have tried it.
Everything the market affords served up in the most palatable manner, is always found in abundance, at the St.
Nicholas.

The Baptist Church at Roseville, will dedicate their house of worship the third Sabbath in June. A number of ministers will be present and take part in the exercises. The sermon will be preached by Rev. J. D. Arnold, of Owensboro, Ky. A large attendance is desired, and dinner will be provided for all. Come brethren and friends and enjoy the meeting with us.

It is no longer a question of debate,
Public opinion has said that E. Small's Trade Palace keeps the largest stock, most stylish, greatest variety and best quality of goods, of all kinds to be found in Ohio county. They do not ask you to take the word of any one, but call yourself and be convinced.

They tell us so and if true just step in and see the bridal presents that W. H.
Eldon has just received and which he will sell cheap.

Married by Elder J. W. Keown, on the 8th ultimo, at the residence of Mr.
Willis, in Edmonson county, Mr. B. F.
Sauder and Miss Lucretia Doll, both of Edmonson county. On the 10th ultimo by same, at V. P. Neal's, in Butler county, Mr. Lewis James and Miss Lucy Neal, both of Butler county. On the 11th of May, by same, at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. A. V.
Day, in Grayson county, Mr. Eli S.
Allen of Ohio county, and Miss Mary
E. Day, of Grayson county.

True charity is always rewarded.
About a year ago Mr. R. N. Duke, living in the neighborhood of Concord church, lost his dwelling and all his household goods by fire. Among the articles contributed for the benefit of Mr. and Mrs. Duke, was that of a bed quilt, by Mr. and Mrs. Jefferson Stevens, of Singular Springs. About three months ago, Mr. Stevens met with the same misfortune—losing his house and everything in it by fire. Mr. and Mrs.
Duke hearing of his misfortune, and remembering their kindness, sent the same quilt back to them.

The wife of I. M. Bennett, we are glad to learn is recovering.

If you have not sold your 1878 tobacco crop, bring it to Chapman & Hines, at Hartford, and get the money for it.

The hotel now occupied by Mr.
Milligan Wright, caught fire last Thursday evening and created considerable excitement, but was soon extinguished without loss.

Do not forget that H. Weinsheimer is still in the trade and sells you clocks, watches and jewelry, at prices, quality considered, as low as the lowest. He does all kinds of repairing with skill and dispatch.

Died in Hardinburg, Tuesday, the 26th instant, Mrs. D. Fisher, after an illness of about ten days. Mrs.
Fisher was sister of Mrs. H. B. Mc-Henry, of this place, who, in company with her son, Gifford, reached Hardinburg about an hour after her death.

PERSONAL MENTION.
Dan'l P. Tracy, Esq., left last Sunday for a short trip to Morgantown.

Mrs. Capt. Sam K. Cox and family, are visiting relatives in Owensboro.

Mr. John C. Thomas has been musing a very sore finger for the past week.

Mr. B. T. Lawrence, of Tishon, has taken a position in the office of Wright's Hotel.

Miss Callie Nichols, of South Carrollton, is visiting her cousin, Miss Dentie Phillips, near town.

Mr. Z. Wayne Griffin, of this place, returned Saturday from a visit to relatives in Elizabethtown.

Mr. Gross Williams, accompanied by his sister, Mrs. D. E. Thomas, spent several days in Owensboro last week.

We had the pleasure last Saturday, of a call from Mr. Eugene Maddox and wife, of the McHenry neighborhood.

Rev. T. J. Randolph and family, accompanied by Mrs. J. P. Barrett spent last Sabbath in the Liberty neighborhood.

Miss Katie Hardwick and Maggie Moseley, of this place, made a short visit to Owensboro last week—returning Friday evening.

Miss Emma Phillips, daughter of our worthy sheriff, Mr. C. W. Phillips, returned Monday from a week's visit to relatives in Spring Lake, Ky.

Hon. H. D. McHenry, Capt. Sam
K. Cox, Dr. Sam L. Berry and Mr. Z.
Wayne Griffin, were among those attending the Louisville races, from this place, last week.

Thanks to Mrs. Jos. T. Benton for a nice meal of her new crop of Irish potatoes, yesterday. They are very large and fine for the season—in fact the large-est we have seen or heard of this year.

Mr. Teeter, of Louisville, representing the patent "Boss" coffee pot, spent several days in our midst last week Mr.
Teeter sold the right of this county to Messrs. Hines and Lawrence.

Mrs. Lena Coyle, who has been so journing in Hartford for several months past, the guest of her brothers, Messrs.
George and J. M. Klein, returned to her home in Louisville last Friday.

Mrs. Wm. Hardwick and daughter, Maggie, left yesterday morning for Lincoln, Ill., to visit their relatives, Mr.
Larkin Nall, and others. We wish them a pleasant visit and safe return.

Mr. Henry Small left for Louisville, last Monday. Mr. Larkin Griffin has succeeded Mr. L. P. Foreman to run the Trade Palace, while the Messrs. Small are absent.

One of the best physicians and surgeons in the country, is Dr. J. T. Miller. He removed from the back part of Mrs. John Shown's head, last week, a cystic tumor as large as an ordinary hen's egg. Mrs. Shown bore the suffering bravely and is now rapidly recovering.

C. M. Pendleton was granted license, at our recent Circuit Court, to practice law. His license was granted by Messrs. J. E. Fogle and C. W. Massie and approved by Judge James Stuart.
Mr. Pendleton is the son of Dr. J. E.
Pendleton, and is quite a clever, worthy young man.

Mr. Charles McGinn, from the Franklin Type Foundry, Cincinnati, Ohio, reached here last Saturday, and has set up and started our power press to run. We have found him to be a first-class machinist, a pleasant gentleman and unquestionably represents a first-class firm.

Our young friend, Armistead Jones,
Esq., of this place, spent several days in Litchfield, last week, attending Criminal Court. Mr. Jones obtained license to practice law while there. The Judge appointed Messrs. T. B. McKeith and Wm. R. Haynes, examiners, who after a thorough criticism, tendered him license, which was approved by Judge John Allen Murray. License granted by those gentlemen is quite a recommendation to Mr. Jones, as they are leading lawyers of the Litchfield bar.

TEMPERANCE LECTURE at Rosine.
T. B. Denmore, Grand Worthy Chief Templar of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky, I. O. G. T., will lecture in Rosine on Sunday June 8th, 1879. He desires a large audience, and will be thankful for some resident of Rosine to make necessary arrangements for a house, &c. 21-22

Burglary.
Burglars entered the storehouse of Sani Ferguson, at Ferguson's Station, on the P. & E. R. R., last Thursday night, and stole a lot of goods of different kinds, amounting to $120.

The Last Call Without Money.
Those owing me must call and pay me at once, I cannot and will not wait longer. If you fail to heed this notice the Sheriff, Constable or Town Marshal will visit you. Z. WAYNE GRIFFIN.

Arrested for Robbery.
Hardin Esposito was arrested a few days since, in Bartlett's precinct, by officer J. B. Whelan, of Whitesville, Davess county, under a bench warrant from Nelson county. He was delivered over to G. W. Hunter, Marshal of Bartlett, who left Owensboro with his prisoner last Sunday week.

Death of Leonard M. Phillips.
Leonard M. Phillips was born near Tishon church, Ohio county, October, 1816.

He spent the prime of his life as a teacher, having taught in many localities, and in several counties.
He settled down in Hopkins county, in or about the year 1853, where he has since lived. His death occurred May 12, 1879, caused by erysipelas. He was well-known and highly esteemed in this community. He leaves a wife, but no children. He made a profession of religion, some seven years before his death.

GREENVILLE, May 23.
Editor Herald:
After an absence of nearly four weeks,
I again resume my place in your column. I have been, heard and taken in more than I can, by any means, communicate or write for you. I was at the great Democratic Low-wow, May 1st, at Louisville, and must say I never saw as many candidates, being candidates chances, combination and self-interest those who had no chance for first, but a good second, whereby places were secured to Mr. S. J. as well as to Mr. J. I went to the Superintendent of Public Instruction and Register of the Land Office. That there were complete out-nomination, and no chance of no chance, it was open, palpable and should in future consign to oblivion the party to the transaction, it is unnecessary in aspirants for nomination by the Democratic party in Kentucky to be guilty of such practices, and those who indulge this should be buried so low, in party estimation that the hand of political resurrection would never reach them. I extended my visit beyond Louisville, and was in the heart of the Blue Grass region, but saw nothing that would be of interest to my readers. I have returned to this section and the farming interests were suffering very much, the crops were behind, grass and wheat cut short for want of rain. In this immediate section there is no news that I have been able to gather since my return. I had expected to be at your court, but had each home instead. I have much to regret, I have anticipated a good time, but the best last schemes of men and mice "I can't gauge."

My friend, I have asked several times if I had quit writing letters for your paper.
I take this method of informing your readers that I will, health and leisure permitted, continue to write for you. I will send you a paper weekly until the end of the year, will thank any one for any item of news in the county, if it is furnished, will send it to the Herald promptly.
